IOC President Bach writes to Olympic Movement: Olympism and Corona 29 Apr 2020

...We have the unique opportunity to turn the celebration of the postponed Olympic Games Tokyo 2020 into a festival of unity for humankind, and a symbol of human resilience to overcome this coronavirus crisis.

Imagine what a powerful signal of hope these Olympic Games will be for the world during these unprecedented times. The Olympic flame can be the light at the end of the dark tunnel that humankind currently finds itself in. …

DUCARROZ Nikita, Swiss Freestyle BMX Olympic bronze medalist Just after her performance, when she met her mother.

Two Brazilians have played volleyball in masks during the Olympics, Lucas Satkamp of the men's team and Macris Carneiro of the women's team.

"If I get infected with the coronavirus, I will spend a lot of time in isolation away from my child and my family. "My first child, now I keep [it on] more for fear for my wife and child."

Two Brazilians have played volleyball in masks during the Olympics, Lucas Satkamp of the men's team and Macris Carneiro of the women's team.

"I play with my mask on, because the mask protects myself and the people around me and I feel safer with it. I believe that it's important to wear a mask and respect social distancing during the pandemic. The mask doesn't hinder or bother me when I am on the court and this is a way I can inspire people to keep wearing their own masks."

The Host Town Initiative

* The details are explained tomorrow by the Mie Katsuno (Headquarters for the Tokyo 2020 Olympic and Paralympic Games, Cabinet Secretariat)

The Host Town Initiative aims to connect Japanese local towns with countries and regions taking part in the Tokyo Games which have been postponed to year 2021, and to have various exchanges in terms of sports, culture, economy, etc. Through their respective Host Towns, participating countries and regions can develop long-term relationship with Japanese local towns.

Historical dimension of Tokyo 2020: Faster, Higher, Stronger and Together

- 1. The new motto: Together, is closely related, and have been realized on the history of the Olympic Movement in Japan.
- 2. Tokyo 2020, even it was "no spectator Games", but at least created and showed the new ideas to realize the Olympic Values in New-Normal Era beyond the COVID-19.
- 3. Especially in the situation, we could feel the Olympic Values and the words of "maximum efficient use of energy" (seiryoku-zenyo) and "mutual prosperity for self and others" (jita-kyoei) by Jigoro Kano.

Thank you very much for listening.
